

UNIVERSITY FAIR

Wednesday 24 September 2025

The global fair to help you choose where to study, how to apply, and prepare for university!

Join a range of live webinar sessions to gain an insight into all things university, and get your questions answered via live chat Q&A with university experts.

Applying to university

Choosing a university and course

Choosing the right university and course can be daunting, and with so many opportunities available it's important to choose the right option for you. Find out what factors you need to consider when choosing, and what research you can do to help make your decision.

How to ace your personal statement

Your personal statement is an opportunity to demonstrate your passion and secure a spot on your dream university course in the UK. Join this session to learn practical tips for a perfect personal statement and discover the updates for 2026 entry.

How to ace your Common App essay

If you're applying to universities in the US, you'll need an outstanding Common App essay. Join this session to learn how the Common App process works, top tips for writing your essay, and how to select the prompt that best reflects you as an individual.

Understanding and accessing scholarships

Are you worried about funding your university journey? Hear about the different types of international student scholarships, how they work, and the best places to access them.

Top tips for moving away from home for university

Starting university is an exciting milestone, but moving away from home can be a big change. Join this session to discover practical tips to help you navigate this new chapter with ease, including things you can do now to get ready!

Where to study

Making the most of studying abroad

Studying abroad is a great opportunity to experience new cultures and meet new people. This session will discuss the benefits of studying abroad, advice on accommodation, and how to know if it's the right fit for you.

Studying in the UK

The UK is home to some of the highest performing universities in the world, and studying there could be a great way to kickstart your career while immersing yourself in the diversity and history of British cities. Join this webinar to help decide if the UK is a good fit for you!

Studying in the US and Canada

The US and Canada have thousands of universities to choose from across countries which are diverse, multicultural, and supportive of international students, making it a top choice for many. Join this session to see what your university experience could be like in these countries.

Studying in Europe

With 44 countries to choose from, Europe is one of the most popular areas to study today. In this session top European universities will cover what it's really like to study in Europe, including student life and opportunities you could get involved in.

An American university experience in Europe

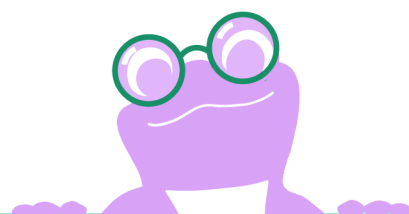

Are you interested in an American university education but want to stay in Europe? Join this session to find out how to apply, the course differences and flexibility, and learn why this might be the best option for you!

Studying in Australia and New Zealand

Australia and New Zealand are fast becoming some of the world's most popular destinations for international students, and Australasia has so much to discover! Join this session to discover what it's like to study in Australia and New Zealand and how to apply.

Studying in Asia

Asia hosts some of the best food, landscapes, and history in the world. If you want to learn more about what it's like to study in Asia, join this session to hear about student life, the exciting opportunities you can get involved in, and how to apply.

What to study

Applying to medicine and dentistry in the UK: what happens next

Applying to medicine and dentistry courses can be an intense process. Once you've completed your personal statement and sat the UCAT, next up are interviews. Join this session to learn how the interviews work and top tips to help prepare you for the next steps.

From side hustles to CEO: is studying business for you?

Are you wondering what it's like to study business at university and if it's the right fit for you? Join this session to find out more about studying this exciting, ever-changing field of study, including the different placement and career opportunities a business degree offers.

Debate, defend, decide: step into the world of law

Are you considering studying law at university? Join this session to discover what this exciting degree involves, including what topics you can study, what to do with a law degree, and the wide-ranging careers it can lead to beyond university.

Brain, bias and behaviour: is psychology for you?

Have you ever wondered why people behave the way they do? Psychology is a pathway you should consider if you want to learn about the inner workings of the mind. This session will explore the exciting topics you'll cover in a psychology degree, and where they could take you in your career.

Plus, meet 32 universities from around the world, including...

...and more!

Sign up at unifrog.org/student/webinars

